Other Rotarians helped Mr. Gorrie into a car and drove him to the Red Cross Hospital, where Rotarian Dr. Fred Griffith attended to the ankle.

In the midst of our celebrations let us pause to remember our pioneer ancestors, now at rest, who in fine weather and foul often drove miles or even walked to be present at the Sunday Services. What wonderful Christian Zeal!

Now it is ours to carry on, let us enjoy our Centennial Services. As we assemble for worship we should consider it a God given privilege to listen to the message of our past Rectors and guest speakers.

St. Paul's Sunday School picnic is to be held at the Camping grounds, South Lake at 2 p.m. Sunday, June 12.

Tuberculosis and Health Assoc. Held Meeting

On May 31st at 8 p.m., the Haliburton County Tuberculosis and Health Association held their annual meeting in the reception room of the Haliburton United Church.

The Rev. George Petrie opened the meeting with a prayer. Mr. M. "Pat" Waddell, President for the past three years, offered greetings to all in his usual affable manner. Mr. W. J. Rea Stinson introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Edward J. O'Brien, Executive, Director, O.T.A., and Mrs. O'Brien whom was able to accompany her husband to the delight of all.

Mr. O'Brien rendered an inspiring and interesting address giving in detail the high lights of a most recent trip through Eastern Asia, along with his Colleagues from various countries. He explained methods, plights of people of Eastern Countries whom are less fortunate than we, here in the Western hemisphere. Relating the acute need of drugs, money to help control the dreadful lalady luncheon.

Along with his Irish wit and humour which no doubt inspired many workers during difficult times.

Various Executive and committee members gave reports on their committee activities during the past year. Mr. Pat Waddell introduced the new president of the Haliburton Branch for 1966 — Mrs. R. Schofield of Wilberforce, an active community worker and staunch member of the Haliburton County Tuberculosis and Health Association, having held the position of Publicity Captain for the year 1965, which she performed miraculously.

Mrs. M. P. Waddell, "Stevey", as she is known to all members, offered thanks and gave a citation to Mr. O'Brien for his formative speech.

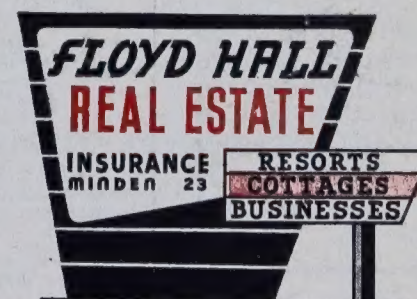

Afterwards the Ladies Auxiliary of the United Church under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Stinson and Mrs. Ray Archer graciously served with the assistance of Mrs. Berte Howe, a delicious buffet luncheon.

Miss Mae Burriss Dies Suddenly

After Making Recent Historical Pilgrimage

Miss Mae Burriss, died Friday, June 3rd, at her home at Horse-shoe Lake. She was in her 77th year. Funeral Services were held Monday June 6th at the John Welch and Son Funeral Home here in Minden. She was taken to Fort Erie for Burial.

Only last week Miss Burriss gave the story of her recent Historical Pilgrimage to the Progress, it is an interesting one, so we have carried through with the story and picture. She was a great booster of the Highlands, and had quite an historical background.

Miss Mae N. Burriss had just returned recently to her Horse-shoe Lake home in the Highlands of Haliburton, after an Historic Pilgrimage to Burriss Township in Rainy River District. She made her headquarters in the Rainy Lake Hotel at Fort Frances. Miss Burriss participated in the Historic Pre-Centennial Ceremony of hanging an oil portrait of her father as Colonizer of that area for the Canadian Government in the senior classroom of the Burriss Township Consolidated School.

Pupils of Burriss Township and two other adjoining townships attended this large, attractive, up to date building, called Burriss Consolidated School, which is situated in the small community, named Burriss, in Burriss Township. There is a Burriss Street in Port Arthur, also named in honour of her father.

In 1898, Colonizer R. A. Burriss led a historic procession of 40 selected settlers, along with a number of their more rugged elder sons, over a snowy, rough trail in frigid, winter weather, 13 miles on foot from Emo, Ontario, on the Rainy River, into newly surveyed Burriss Township, Rainy River district. Each man, as head of a family, received his 160 acres of free grant land in "New Ontario".

In 1966, his spirited daughter Mae, a well known collegiate institute and technical school teacher, author, and all-round athlete, rolled over modern paved roads in the comfort of an automobile, driven by the principal of the Burriss Township School, Mrs. Jean Jack. After letting her eyes move appreciatively over the beautiful farmland countryside, mantled with fresh, springtime verdure, beneath sunny skies, Miss Burriss was heard, talking to the packaged oil portrait, carefully held on her knees as she sat in the front seat of the car: "I am bringing you back home to your pet township".

When Miss Burriss made a week's stop-over in her beloved home-town, Port Arthur, on her way to Rainy River Country, the Port Arthur News-Cronicle gave her a heart warming press salute, which was entitled "Thunder Bay Mae, has Warm Welcome Home." The Patriotic Canadian Song, "Canada: Good Will To Offer", which she had recently composed was published by both the Port Arthur and Fort Frances newspapers. The Port Arthur papers reviewed some of her early school achievements. Miss Burriss was the first honour graduate of the first Upper-School class of Port Arthur's pioneer first high school, and the first girl graduate from Port Arthur to attend a university, the University of Toronto.

Miss Burriss was never late or absent throughout her entire school days — a 100 percent record in punctuality and attendance.

She was the Medallist for the pioneer public school and Gold Medallist and Valedictorian on graduation from the High school, where she graduated with 18 first class honour exam papers.

Miss Burriss was not only a keen student, but also gave leadership in the school's Literary, Gramatic, Historical, Debating and Public Speaking Societies, and took a very active part in school sports. She was an all-round athlete in Track and field, basketball, baseball, hockey and Tennis.

In 1960, when the Port Arthur Collegiate Institute observed its fiftieth anniversary, "The Golden Jubilee", Miss Mae Burriss was named the "Outstanding Graduate of the Half-Century".

In her report to the Progress Paula Bunyan of the Highlands of Haliburton, as she described herself, said, "I am in the sunset years of so-called retirement, Tom-boy Mae of those earlier Port Arthur times, still follows through to successful completion her rugged challenging undertakings of all sorts."

In 1960 Miss Burriss, an authority on Canadian Books, in particular, won the first prize in a Dominion-wide Literary Contest, sponsored by the Ontario Library Council and the Canadian Publisher's Association, and promoted by The Toronto Telegram, and a Toronto Advertising Agency.

Miss Burriss had decided to give her prize books, which she had won, a set of 24 Encyclopaedia Britannica to Burriss Township Consolidated School, as a Centennial Gift. She said, "I am giving these books now, when they can be of some value to the pupils of three townships in their Consolidated set-up."

Over a long lifetime, Miss Burriss has publized the efforts of our own Canadian writers, and has set up attractive, store window displays of each year's outstanding Canadian Books. Her annual book shows were always highly praised by both daily and weekly newspapers across Canada.

Over the years, Miss Burriss has built up a remarkable personal Library of representative Canadian books, over 1500 selected volumes, which she pledged, years ago, to Canada's National Library, whenever it would be built. Canada's National Library now has been under construction in Ottawa, for the past two years, and hopefully will be completed in time for the observance, in 1967 of Canada's Centennary of Confederation.

Before her death, Miss Burriss, wanted it known that she belonged to Haliburton County, all of us can be very proud of her superlative Centennial book gift, to Canada's National Library, for its opening in 1967.

WE SWUNG — WITH THE SWINGERS

The rhythm and the beat of today's music is certainly for the young set, or at least for those who feel young. It could probably be used as a therapy, for those with tired blood, stiff joints, or an ageing heart. To find this way-out-music here in our district, you have to travel to Carnarvon, and Medleys Dance. This is no commercial — but a report to the parents on the swingers of today, the teen-agers.

Having never attended a dance at this hot spot in Carnarvon, I decided to keep up with what's going on — in the in circle. Now these legs of mine haven't been roaming the soil for too many years, and I have always had the feeling that my youth would stay with me for ever — but I have to admit it took me awhile to catch the beat and dig the swing — but, man once you catch on, your eighteen all over again.

We had alot of laughs, and a good time. Watching the younger set, is worth the admission alone. Some seem to go into a trance — staring into space, without a smile on their face throughout the entire number; others drift away from their partners, and it makes you wonder, just who's dancing with who; and then again there are others, who never move off the same spot, but the anatomy sure gets a shaking down. There is no more soft shoe, or the clutch and grab tactics — when I was a teen-ager, we used to like to hold our gal close, but this is all changed — the heart no longer beats faster with a gal in their arms — they are all individualists, staging their own performance and entertainment. This might be the idealistic thing to do — the shy fellow who used to stand in the corner and had to be pulled on the floor, by his girl, in my day — no longer exists. With the first beat of the drum, everyone jumps up and starts to swing. When the fellow swaying in front of the mike, warbles his last note, he gets applauded, and everyone laughs and kibbits about — they are still enjoying themselves as much as ever.

It would pay the parents to take in some of these evenings — to keep up with the younger minds in the family. All these stories you hear about the juvenile delinquents of today were not evident Friday night. In fact I was a little surprised at the good behaviour of the teen-agers, and as we bumped shoulders with them, their politeness and good manners were of the best calibre.

We don't think there is too much to worry about in the younger generation, I think if there is a worry at all, it would be amongst the parents — they seem to forget, as the years go by, just what took place when they were young. The biggest problem amongst us parents is that we don't stay young at heart, as our body gets older. Parents should educate themselves to the ways of the young, and lend a guided hand, only when needed. The rights and wrongs have not changed through the years. It is only in the minds of the older generation that there are now more wrongs than right.

Even at our age we have a tendency to fall behind the times, for a decade makes quite a difference at the pace of today's living. So last week end we swung a little — and enjoyed the company of all the swingers.

SAFETY FEATURES IN CARS NOT LIKELY TO REDUCE ACCIDENTS ON HIGHWAYS

More safety features in cars are not likely to substantially reduce the number of accidents on Canadian highways but could definitely lessen the toll of fatalities from these mishaps. What is needed to cope with the motor accident problem is more driver training and education and the exercise of additional care, caution and common sense on the part of all motorists.

This is the opinion of Fred H. Ellis, General Manager of the Ontario Safety League. It is shared by members of Junior Chambers of Commerce who are presently conducting a province-wide safe driving campaign beamed at Ontario teen-age drivers.

During 1965 there were 1611 deaths in this province, caused by traffic accidents. The statistics to date this year indicate that the toll in 1966 may be even higher. This appalling loss of life can be halted with more driver training and the exercise of more care and caution coupled with the immediate repair of faulty or worn automotive parts.

Meanwhile regional safe-driving competitions have been held at a number of provincial centers during recent weeks under the auspices of local Junior Chambers of Commerce.

These events comprise a province-wide campaign designed to make youthful drivers more safety conscious and to install in them a greater sense of responsibility while behind the wheel of a car.

The finals in this safe-driving campaign will be held at Burlington on Saturday, June 25, under the combined auspices of the Burlington Junior Chamber of Commerce and Imperial Oil Ltd.

Finalists will be winners of regional competitions. They will undergo rigid driving and written tests under the watchful eye of police and safety officials.

The winner will be acclaimed the 1966 teen-age safe driving champion, and be the recipient of a cash award of $100 and the Esso trophy.

This service to the public — or lack of it — opened my eyes to a facet of the restaurant business I never thought of. Everyone has their own conception of why a restaurant fails or becomes a success. You no doubt have your own ideas — see how they match up with a recent survey of the general public.

Service is at the top of the list. 78 per cent of the customers placed this commodity above everything else.

The cleanliness of the restaurant and the restaurant staff came next with 64 per cent of the public.

35 per cent felt that the atmosphere of the establishment was the most important.

The next item will shock or maybe make the temperance people feel good — only 7 per cent felt that liquor or beer with their meals was of any importance. So, it would appear that we aren't going to become a nation of alcoholics by drinking with our meals.

The next three items were only of interest to 5 per cent of the interviewed groups — the variation of the menu, the location of the restaurant and the type of entertainment they presented. How does this match your ideas?

* * * *

Luck has always been a variant in my life. You read of Cec. Yearwood, Sterling Hewitt and Doug Pritchard winning transistor radios at Jack Austin's Esso Station. They don't have all the luck — recently Jack presented me with a tiger prize — an all-expense fishing trip to Howland Junction — for the fishing season of January 1967. The Centennial Year.

* * * *

Speaking of tigers — this sign on the back of a car boggles the imagination.

"I don't have a tiger in my tank but I have a woman lion in the back seat of my car."

* * * *

Sorry to hear the "cheerful chemist" Lorne Coburn is under the weather. Last week, when I ran out of space I mentioned the "gimmick" he presented me with. In the past couple of weeks it has been a great source of enjoyment. It is a ball point pen that looks like a Tiparillo Cigar. Placed in with the real cigars it startles the customers when you hand him a "cigar" out of a packet to sign papers with.

Telephoned the hospital the other night to find out how Ernie Windover and Willard Billings were getting along. They are improving. I understand the sure sign of improvement is when they start chasing the nurses. This was in error — we got a letter from R. A. Percy of Toronto who outlined some experiences in Newfoundland — nothing he could put his finger on — he admitted doing most of his research in the daytime. "I'm no hero". From what I've heard of the country from "Newfie" Earle, no self-respecting ghost would be found dead around the place.

There have been rumours of ghosts — just North of Minden on Highway 35. "The black-bearded gentleman with the axe over his shoulder." South of Minden — a ghostly walker who tumbles to the ground after a shot rings out. This fellow appears in the vicinity of Kilcoo Camp. Anyone know anything about these two fellows?

RECREATIONAL LAND

INVENTORY HERE IN

HALIBURTON

A crew of men, a boat and a 10 foot spear could mean illegal fishing. This summer in Haliburton County it probably means lakeshore soil samples are being collected for a recreational land inventory.

All lands in the District, particularly lakeshores are being classified for outdoor recreation use. The land is inspected and ranked according to its potential for outdoor recreation. Funds for this program are being supplied by Federal ARDA. The work is being carried out in the Province by the Department of Lands and Forests over a five year period.

The purpose of the program is to assist in Land Use Planning with particular reference to sales and acquisition for outdoor recreation.

PENNIES, NICKELS AND

DIMES ADD UP

The Ontario Junior Red Cross Fund for Needy Children contributed $25,000.00 to the Hospital for Sick Children Building Fund last week, at the Hospital, Room 108.

More than 700,000 members of Junior Red Cross in elementary schools across Ontario have contributed their pennies, nickels and dimes collected at Junior Red Cross meetings over the past year towards this project.

Eight year old Kimberly Hartle presented the cheque on behalf of fellow Juniors. Accepting for the Hospital for Sick Children was six year old Keith White of St. John's Newfoundland. Keith was admitted to the Hospital June 16, 1963 with congenital laryngeal stenosis — too small a windpipe to breathe properly. Since then he has had four major and innumerable minor operations to enlarge it. He still breathes through a tracheotomy tube in his throat and has to be watched constantly.

Some of the other projects supported by Ontario Junior Red Cross members this year are: — three mobile dental coaches which bring free dental care to children in remote isolated areas of the Province; a mobile eye-vision coach which locates in various sections of Northern Ontario to test and correct vision defects; providing drugs, hearing aids, glasses and orthodontic equipment to 863 needy children; sending homcraft parcels to bed-ridden children and assistance to Indian and Eskimo children.

Every penny contributed by the Junior Red Cross members to support their projects. Administration costs are borne by the Senior Red Cross Society.

It was just one year ago this week, that the Progress Newspaper opened here in Minden, with its new office. The two clowns pictured above moved into town just in time to get into the act of last years Rotary Carnival, left pressman Charlie Stevens, and Editor Al Greir. They are now in the process of thinking up another float for this years Carnival parade, July 27th, and 28th.

William Scott, MP for Victoria-Haliburton riding took part in the parade here on May Festival week end.
